DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

1. Claims 3-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Truchsess, US Patent 5,734,726.

Re Claim 3, Truchsess discloses a sound synthesizer for generating a sound that simulates the sound of an internal combustion engine having a plurality of cylinders (col. 2, lines 29-35), the sound synthesizer comprising: a memory arranged to store engine sound data corresponding to a plurality of operational states of the engine based on a firing interval of the cylinders (col. 2, lines 29-37); and an output generator arranged to concurrently output first and second sound signals (col. 2, lines 29-37); wherein the output generator controls the first and second sound signals such that the first sound signal has at least one of a first pitch that is variable for each firing interval and a first volume that is variable for each firing interval (col. 3, lines 40-53: anyone of the acceleration sounds), and the second sound signal has at least one of a second pitch that is variable for each firing interval independently of the first pitch of the first sound signal and a second volume that is variable for each firing interval independently of the first volume of the first sound signal (col. 3, lines 40-53: anyone of the acceleration sounds after the sound has been decelerated to idle and accelerated again; every acceleration will have different sound levels and pitches).

Re Claim 4, Truchsess discloses the sound synthesizer according to claim 3, wherein the first pitch and the first volume of the first sound signal are varied at a first rate (col. 3, lines 62-67: the engine produces different sound levels and pitches depending on acceleration or deceleration), and the second pitch and the second volume of the second sound signal are varied at a second rate different from the first rate to cause the sound synthesizer to generate sound having fluctuations in volume, pitch, and tone (col. 3, lines 62-67: the engine produces different sound levels and pitches depending on acceleration or deceleration).
